ALEXANDRIA, VA. THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 3, 1910.

PRICE 2 CENTS

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heartburn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach growl or burn, faint breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants, viz., Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrubark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and Mandrake root.

The following leading medical authorities, among a host of others, extol the foregoing roots for the cure of just such ailments as the above symptoms indicate: Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Med. College, Phila.; Prof. H. C. Wood, M. D., of Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Edwin H. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., Author of American Dispensary; Prof. J. M. Scudder, M. D., Author of Specific Medicines; Prof. Lawrence Johnson, M. D., Med. Dept. Univ. of N. Y.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., Author of Materia Medica and Prof. Bennett Medical College, Chicago. Address and address on Postal Card to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive free booklet giving extracts from writings of all the above medical authorities and many others endorsing, in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient of this "Golden Medical Discovery."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They may be used in conjunction with "Golden Medical Discovery" if bowels are much constipated. There is no cost.

PROPOSED GIGANTIO STRIKE.

A universal strike of union workers and their sympathizers, to begin at midnight Friday, was proclaimed by the Central Labor Union of Philadelphia and vicinity at a meeting last night. The strike leaders declare that 100,000 men will stop work at that hour if the Rapid Transit Company shall not in the meantime have consented to arbitrate its differences with the striking carmen. Assurance has been received, they say, from hundreds of unorganized wage-earners that they will join the movement.

The meeting at which the strike order was promulgated was large, and sentiment was apparently unanimous in favor of the general strike.

Telegrams were read from the Chicago and San Francisco federations of labor, 250,000 and 175,000 members, respectively, pledging their moral and financial support.

Some employees in Philadelphia threaten to declare a lockout if the strike order goes into effect.

Although yesterday was unusually quiet throughout the city, rioting started again last night in the northeastern section, where everything was quiet during the presence of the strike police.

At Allegheny and Frankford avenues a number of cars were demolished by stones, and at Richmond and Orthodox streets a number of small boys set fire to a frame waiting room owned by the transit company. The firemen were obliged to turn their hose on the crowd before it would disperse.

Shots from a revolver were fired at Capt. Duncan, of the park guard, who is doing police duty during the strike, while he was passing Forty-sixth street and Leucaster avenue last night in an automobile. One of the bullets passed close to his head and was buried in the frame of his machine. His assailant escaped.

FOUND A BURIED TOWN.
Every once in a while excavation in southern Arizona results in the discovery of a buried village. The most recent discovery of this kind was made by Frank O. Erwin near his home, 11 miles from Columbus.

Three miles from his ranch Erwin started to dig an irrigation ditch. Only a few feet under the surface he began to uncover remains of a shape and material which indicated that they had been used by a race probably as old as the Aztecs, that strange people whose "Seven Famous Cities" was the lure that brought Father Niz and the negro E. T. Yarnold from the Spanish mission at Culiacan north along the Sonora river to the old city of Tabasco, near Tuscon, which expedition was the beginning of civilization in Arizona.

After digging deeper Erwin came across a wall, which he followed for 20 feet. Further investigation brought to light hundreds of bones well preserved, one skeleton being intact. When an attempt was made to take up the skeleton it fell to pieces. Among the treasures unearthed was a slab on which were written curious figures representing men and birds and animals. Erwin took several of the relics into Tombstone and will send others to the Smithsonian Institution. [Kansas City Star.]

WIDOW SELLS HER HAIR.
Mrs. Beale Anderson, a young widow with three children, walked into a fashionable hairdressing establishment in Pittsburgh, Pa., yesterday, let down her hair, and displayed it to the proprietor.

"What will that be worth to you?" she asked with a tear-stained face.
"Goodness, woman, you don't mean to tell me you intend to part with that wonderful head of hair? It is the most beautiful I have ever seen," said the shopman, as he inspected the silken tresses, which reached to the floor.

"Yes, I must sell it or starve. The rent is not paid and there is not a crumb of bread in the house. I cannot bring myself to ask for charity. I expect to get a pistol soon, but until then I am dependent upon my own efforts."

"Well, I will give you $50 for that hair, if you really must part with it."

The bargain was closed and within a few minutes the beautiful locks were shorn.

keep alive an Ireland-at-home. In at least 20 of the 32 counties of Ireland, it is rare to find a family that has not a representative in America. Some of them have four or five. In all the poorer mountainous counties that border on the rugged western coast there is hardly a comfortable new house erected but has not been erected by American money.

OVERLAND CARS.

The greatest AUTOMOBILE demand in the history of the business is predicted for the season of 1910. Only by putting in an order for your car now and specifying the date of delivery will we be able to take care of your order promptly. The shortage of freight cars, the scarcity of materials, the rush of spring orders, and the constant competition of the automobile business in the spring all work together to prevent prompt deliveries. Therefore, order now and get your car when you want it.
